21-year minimum terms for wicked pair after victim beaten and kicked to death

JAILED: Chas Quye and Elvis Kwiatkowski receive life sentences for the murder while Scott Hunt gets five years, Alan Quinn three, and Bradley Andison four

By Michael Cox

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

TWO men have been jailed for life after murdering a father of two from Dagenham, whose dismembered body was discovered in a lake.

Neill Buchel, 39, was killed in a brutal attack on the night of Thursday, March 13 last year before his body was cut up into several parts and dumped into White Hart Lakes at Eastbrookend Country Park in Dagenham.

Chas Quye, 36, of Stansgate Road, Dagenham and Elvis Kwiatkowski, 36, of Clopton Close, Royston, were given life sentences at the Old Bailey on April 15 2015, with both recommended to serve a minimum of 21 years in prison for murder and conspiracy to pervert the course of justice.

At the same court, three other men were also handed jail terms for plotting to cover up the crime. Scott Hunt, 42, of Braintree Road, Dagenham, was jailed for five years for conspiracy to pervert the course of justice and Alan Quinn, 28, of Lynette Road, Dagenham, was given three years imprisonment for the same charge. Bradley Andison, 47, of Villa Road, Rochester, was also sentenced to four years imprisonment for perverting the course of justice, having pleaded guilty on December 2, 2014.

Quye, Kwiatkowski, Hunt and Quinn were all convicted at Blackfriars Crown Court on March 27. Hunt was acquitted of murdering Buchel, while 61 year-old Colin Bushaway, of Gregory Crescent, Eltham, was found not guilty of perverting the course of justice.

The shocking discovery of Buchel's body parts happened on Tuesday April 1 2014 when a fisherman was walking around the lakes

BODY-PART BUTCHERS GET LIFE

KILLED: 10 body parts of Neill Buchel dumped in White Hart Lakes and spotted what he thought was a dead fish floating in the water. But it was actually a human thigh and he alerted the police, who came to the scene and searched the lakes over the next few days.

Nine other body parts were found, including Buchel's torso which had been wrapped in a duvet cover and a curtain as well as being weighed down with stones.

The fatal attack on Buchel occurred after he had last been seen alive with a group including Quye, Kwiatkowski and Hunt at Quye's flat. While there Buchel was killed in a brutal assault, suffering multiple injuries including numerous fractured bones, internal bleeding, defensive injuries to his hands and bruising, which all suggested that he had been beaten, kicked and stamped upon.

Quinn was present during the attack but did not prevent his friends

'Murdered at the hands of people he trusted and believed were his friends'

from committing it. He left the flat on the following day as if nothing had happened.

The court heard how on March 15 Bushaway was called to Quye's flat and shown Buchel's dead body by Quye and Kwiatkowski, although he did not become involved. He is also said to have been told by Kwiatkowski that the 'package' had become smaller, an inference that the corpse had been dismembered.

Andison, who was Quye's half-brother, was the one found to have moved the body.

In evidence given to the court, Quye described how he had cut up the dead body but that it had been messier than he had expected and that he had contacted Andison to help him dispose of the body parts.

Investigating officer detective chief inspector Chris Jones, of the Homicide and Major Crime Command, said after the sentencing: "Neill Buchel was murdered at the hands of people he trusted and believed were his friends.

"His death and subsequent treatment of his body have left all who knew him completely devastated.

"I would like to pay tribute to Neill's family both in the UK and South Africa.

"Throughout our investigation and the trial process they have demonstrated great dignity, especially during the harrowing evidence from defendant Quye.

"I feel today's sentences properly reflect the callous and evil crimes committed by the guilty parties."

Win tickets to ride with the Fab Four

THE Beatles meteoric rise from their humble beginnings in Liverpool's Cavern Club, through Beatlemania to their later studio masterpieces is a story that changed the music world forever.

Even though the Fab Four's wild ride came to a halt too early for so many of us, we can all now experience the magical mystery tour of the greatest pop group of all time live like never before.

Let It Be chronicles the lads' evolution from suited upstarts to Sgt Peppers, with set lists and outfits that come together to create a Beatles spectacular the likes of which has never been seen before.

Delight in live performances of early tracks including Twist and Shout, She Loves You and Drive My Car as well as global mega-hits like Yesterday, Penny Lane, All you Need is Love and, of course, Let It Be, this unforgettable night out will transport you back to a time when all you needed was love – and a little help from your friends.

The international sensation has returned to London's Garrick Theatre and more than one million people around the world have already experienced this incredible show, jam-packed with more than 40 of The Beatles greatest hits.

For further information and tickets visit www.letitbelive.com.

To win one of five pairs of tickets for the show just answer the following question.

Q: Where did The Beatles start their career?

A: The O2 Arena

B: Birmingham NEC

C: The Cavern Club

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to (0901 307 1708) with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YALET (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 51p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, April 30. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, SW4 7BX. Tel: 0207 720 7130.

Tickets are valid to see Let It Be up until September 27, 2015 (subject to availability). Travel to and from the theatre is not included.

Boxing champ puts students through their paces

By Michael Cox

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A BOXING champion from Dagenham has given his expert advice to sports students at a local college.

Kevin Mitchell, who is the current WBC silver lightweight champion, visited Barking and Dagenham College to help the sports studies students learn about boxing.

He showed them how to do basic footwork, body positioning and techniques whilst also watching the students as they were put through their paces.

One student who was talent-spotted by Kevin was 18 year-old Aiden Morgan from Dagenham.

Aiden said: "It was an honour to have someone of his calibre coming in to teach us. Kevin is a great guy, he gave us some pointers on our training, and overall it was a brilliant experience."

Kevin was invited to visit the college by another student, Karen Boxall, from Dagenham, who hopes to become a personal trainer when she finishes her course.

Karen said: "It was a real boost for us all to get some tips from Kevin and it will keep us all motivated to keep learning."

Kevin's next fight is against Venezuelan Jorge Linares for the WBC lightweight world title on May 30.

He added: "It was great to be able to visit Barking & Dagenham College and meet all the students. They were really interested in finding out about boxing and we were able to go through a few key techniques which will help them in their studies."

There's never been a better time to go sailing

HIT the water this summer and learn something new at Havering Sailing Club in the beautiful setting of Stubbers Adventure Centre.

The club is looking for new members and welcomes helmsmen and crews of all ages and abilities, from complete novices to those with much more experience.

With existing experienced members on hand there is always someone to offer help and advice at the clubhouse next to Stubbers freshwater lake, off Ockendon Road, Upminster.

There are a variety of dinghies, including an Optimist, Mirror, Pacer and GP14, all of which are available for the use of members and their guests on the inland lake.

Members of the club, which is affiliated with the Royal Yachting Association, also enjoy annual and other events throughout the year including a marathon involving two hours of continuous sailing over a race course, a regatta, fundraising quiz nights and a countryside ramble.

They also take part in the annual Round the Island Race, around Mersea Island, near Colchester which attracts hundreds of sailors each year in August.

Throughout the sailing season,

CHIPPING IN: Steve Grey from The Golden Fish in Dagenham

Chip giveaway helps to raise cash for charities

AN AWARD-WINNING fish and chip shop has raised money for two charities following a record chip giveaway.

The Golden Fish, in Becontree Avenue, Dagenham, donated £675 – the profit it made on February 23 when staff handed out free chips to customers.

The money raised will go towards charities in the area, the Osborne Partnership, which provides training and work opportunities to people with learning difficulties and Step Up, which supports families of children who are victims of sexual abuse.

Manager Jason Aiken, 46, said the idea to offer free chips was a way of saying thanks to the community and customers for voting for the shop to win the Potato Council's award for the UK's Best Chippy in February.

He joked: "We knew we were going to be busy."

Staff served more than 1,350 portions of chips during the day, which Jason revealed was the largest ever daily serving in the shop's 46-year history.

The Golden Fish was set up by Jason's father and mother-in-law James and Yvonne Plows, who are both still involved in the business.

Jason said the shop has seen an increase in the number of customers since it won the award.

He added: "We have seen a few more new faces and some old customers that have returned back to the fold."

Ridgeway Rovers Football Club

Ridgeway Rovers Football Club is looking for volunteers (Based in Chingford/Walthamstow)

If you are interested in running a kids football team, we can help you to gain the relevant qualifications, and give you the support you need to become a qualified Coach/Manager. We want to keep youngsters playing grassroots football, and you could help us to achieve this. We would also welcome anyone who feels they have skills they can bring to the club, in any other role.

Contact us at www.ridgewayrovers.co.uk

We are also looking for players from the age of 8 to 17-years-old, to join our club. We are proud to have produced David Beckham, Harry Kane, Andros Townsend and other players who have also gone on to have successful football careers.

Ridgeway Rovers runs a Soccer School at Goals Chingford, from 9.30am to 11.00am every Saturday morning. If your child enjoys football, or just wants to give it a try, then come along and meet our friendly, fully qualified staff. The first week is free (£3.00 per session thereafter), and kids can just come along whenever they want to. It is a great way to see if your child enjoys playing football, without having to make any expensive commitments. It can also lead to a place in a team, for those children who want to take the next step.

Basildon £210,000 Freehold

Temme English are pleased to market this extended family home which offers as much accommodation as it does potential. Once through the front door you will be greeted by the welcoming entrance hall, this leads to the downstairs W/C, kitchen/breakfast room as well as the lounge come diner which has been extended to create a bigger family/entertaining area. Upstairs offers three bedrooms with a large walk in wardrobe to bedroom two. The wet room completes the upstairs. Externally to the rear is a low maintenance garden and also a double width garage. This property would lend itself well to someone looking to place their own stamp on their new home and an internal viewing should be made so that the true potential can be fully acknowledged.

Motoring News*New Evoque turns on the style

By Mike Torpey

LAND ROVER'S fastest-selling model will be available from £30,200 when revamped variants of the Range Rover Evoque arrive in September.

New design plus technologies that deliver better efficiency, lower running costs and an enhanced ownership experience will be features of the 2016 model range.

Leading the way is a new four-cylinder Ingenium engine delivering up to 68mpg in the eD4 two-wheel drive version.

And the premium brand is offering customers greater opportunity to personalise their Evoque with an increased range of standard and optional equipment.

It means customers can select from SE, SE Tech, HSE Dynamic, HSE Dynamic Lux and Autobiography trim grades.

The Evoque's exterior design has been updated with revisions like a new front bumper, two new grille designs, all-LED headlamps, a tailgate spoiler and three new alloy wheel designs.

Inside, there's a new seat design, new colours and cabin materials aimed at increasing the car's feeling of luxury.

Land Rover's new infotainment system, InControlTM Touch, is introduced from the autumn with an eight-inch touchscreen and more applications and driver aid.

In addition, a new Gesture Control feature is available for the first time on a Land Rover allowing users to open the tailgate hands-free.

Prices start at £30,200 for the 150bhp Evoque SE eD4 2WD manual model, rising to £51,800 for the 180bhp TD4 Autobiography with 4WD.

The Range Rover Evoque Coupe starts at £32,200 for the eD4 SE Tech 2WD model.

New features as standard include Lane Departure Warning, Autonomous Emergency Braking, heated eight way adjustable front seats, powerfold door mirrors, automatic headlamps, rain sensing wipers and automatic climate control in addition to the current version's spec.

And Land Rover says service intervals for the TD4 engine have been extended from 16,000 miles to 21,000 miles to reduce running costs.

CITY SLICKER

Hapless Hammers no match for under pressure Pellegrini's men

West Ham United

Manchester City 2

West Ham United 0

Brian Jeeves reporting from the Etihad Stadium

WEST Ham United's wretched Barclays Premier League form showed little sign of letting up as the Hammers crashed meekly to Manchester City on Sunday.

There was a real sense of disenchantment around the stadium, with neither side in any sort of form and both Manuel Pellegrini and Sam Allardyce under scrutiny.

City's title hopes had all but evaporated following a painfully heavy derby defeat to Manchester United at Old Trafford last week, while Marko Arnautovic's stoppage time equaliser for Stoke City at Upton Park had frustrated the Hammers.

Both clubs sat in the bottom half of the Premier League's current form table, with just three victories between them from the last six.

And the recent tale of woe continued with City unable to call upon the services of Wilfred Bony, Gael Clichy, Stevan Jovetic, Vincent Kompany and James Milner, while the Hammers had to make do without James Tomkins, Andy Carroll and Diafra Sakho.

With such a wealth of talent still at their disposal, it was the home side who started the brighter.

Pablo Zabaleta tested the Hammers' resolve probing from the right flank, while Carlton Cole did enough to knock David Silva off his stride as City continued to search for an early opening.

City pressed menacingly. Silva fired over after Zabaleta had seized on some sloppy defending from Aaron Creswell, while Sergio Aguero tested Hammers goalkeeper Adrian with a low drive.

Aleksandar Kolarov was next to try his luck. His dead-ball effort flew just past an upright after Winston Reid was clumsy on Frank Lampard.

But in the 17th minute a calamity for West Ham as City broke the deadlock. Jesus Navas drilled in from the right, and the unlucky James Collins could only look on as his attempted clearance looped over Adrian and just over the line via the underside of the bar.

It was almost 30 minutes in before the Hammers offered a genuine threat. Joe Hart moved quickly to block from Cole, after the front man had latched onto a rare mistake by Zabaleta. Then Cheikhou Kouyate drove low into the keeper's midriff from distance as the visitors started to find their feet.

But as the half drew to a close City doubled their advantage in style.

Aguero latched onto Stewart Downing's misplaced pass and ram-paged from deep before exchanging passes with Navas and firing crisply under the advancing Adrian.

And there was no let-up after the break as the City onslaught showed little sign of subsiding. Carl Jenkinson's last-ditch tackle denied Aguero a second after Yaya Toure had found the Argentine with a delightful reverse pass, while Silva's snapshot was scrambled away by Collins.

DISAPPOINTED: Big Sam at the post match press conference

Despite the introduction of Kevin Nolan and Matt Jarvis, West Ham simply couldn't get going.

Kouyate was lucky not to add to the east Londoners' frustrations, escaping with a yellow card after appearing to throw an elbow into the face of Silva. The City playmaker required lengthy treatment and was eventually stretchered from the field.

Once play resumed, Downing's low strike was blocked by Eliaquim Mangala as the Hammers looked for an unlikely foothold.

Nolan failed to make contact with Enner Valencia's centre with the goal gaping, then Hart produced a double save to deny the same pair. But in truth the game was now little more than a training exercise for the outgoing champions.

Substitute Edin Dzeko passed up a glorious chance to add a third late on after Toure had played him in.

But the outcome was never really in any doubt.

Afterwards Allardyce said: "I think the disappointing thing firstly, is the goals we've gifted to Man City, and secondly, the amount of possession we allowed ourselves to lose.

"The worst thing to do after we've defended pretty well is make individual errors."

He continued: "When you create two chances as good as Enner Valencia's and Kevin Nolan's then we've got to convert them if we are to get anything out of this game.

"We didn't convert them at that late stage and end up losing."

On Kouyate's clash with Silva, Allardyce stated: "Accidental. It looked pretty innocuous to me. I didn't think it was a foul."

City boss Pellegrini said: "It was very important to try and be a consistent team. I think today, especially the first 65 minutes, we played a good game."

West Ham United are next in Barclays Premier League action on Saturday when they visit a Queen's Park Rangers side desperately trying to scramble clear of the drop zone.

Manchester City: Joe Hart, Martin Demichelis, Pablo Zabaleta, Aleksandar Kolarov, Eliaquim Mangala, David Silva (Samir Nasri), Yaya Toure (Capt), Fernando Reges, Jesus Navas, Frank Lampard (Fernandinho), Sergio Aguero (Edin Dzeko). Subs not used: Willy Caballero, Bacary Sagna, Dedryck Boyata, Jose Pozo.

Referee: Anthony Taylor
Assistants: D Cann and S Child
Fourth Official: R Madley
Attendance: 45,041

Non-league round-up

Thurrock hit five

By Brian Jeeves

GOAL crazy Thurrock hammered five past Waltham Abbey as the Fleet cemented their place in the Ryman League One North play-off places at Ship Lane.

Lewis Spence, Leslie Thompson, Charlie Stimson, Ross Wall and Joe Christou were on target as the home side won an entertaining affair 5-2. And they will be joined by Brentwood Town who clinched their place with a 2-2 draw against Chatham Town. Ace marksman Sherwin Stanley with a pair for Town.

Lee Weemes and Aundre Spencer found the net as Barkingside grabbed a 2-0 success over bottom of the table Burnham Ramblers, while Nick Reynolds bagged the winner as Romford won 1-0 at Cheshunt. And it was an away day special for Aveley who took the points with a 2-1 triumph at Wroxham, Sammy Knott and Arian Retkoceri finding the net for the Millers.

Great Waking Rovers slipped to a 3-1 defeat to Brightlingsea Regent at Burroughs Park. John Bradley fired the villagers ahead, but Ben Newson and an Oliver Canfer brace ensured the points headed for north Essex. And there was a thumping for Redbridge who went down 5-0 at AFC Sudbury.

Elsewhere Heybridge Swifts slipped 1-0 at Thamesmead Town, while it was all-square as Maldon & Tiptree and Dereham Town drew 1-1.

In the Ryman Premier Division there was a thriller at New Lodge as Billericay Town and Tonbridge Angels played out a 3-3 draw, and Jack Simmons was Canvey Island' scorer as the Gulls picked up a point at Leiston.

AFC Hornchurch's game with Peacehaven & Telscombe was also a 1-1 stalemate, George Purcell with the Urchins goal, and it was the same outcome as East Thurrock United entertained Enfield Town. Grays Athletic completed a frustrating afternoon for the region's Premier Division clubs, their match with Hendon ended goalless.

The big news coming out of Braintree Town this week was the resignation of manager Alan Devonshire and his assistant Keith Rowland. Former West Ham United midfielder Devonshire has been at the helm for four years. His departure sparked speculation linking him with several clubs including Colchester United and Southend United.

Academy coach Mark Sansom took charge for the Iron's game at Wrexham, but goals from Louis Moulst (2) and Andy Bishop eased the home side to a 3-0 Vanarama Premier Division success.

It was a disappointing day for Conference South outfit Concord Rangers. The Beach Boys went down to a single goal against Hayes & Yeading United at the Aspect Arena.

Christian Smith with the decisive strike early in the first-half.

In the Essex Senior League Haringey Borough overcame Bowers & Pitsea by the odd goal in five to clinch the title. Eton Manor saw off lowly Southend Manor by four goals to two, while it was 1-1 between Hullbridge Sports and Ilford at Lower Road, and the same outcome as Tower Hamlets shared the spoils with Basildon United.

In the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League it was celebration time for Division One outfit White Ensign who won promotion to the Premier Division with a 3-0 win at Hutton. Darren Burrell, Yaw Danso and Jamie Brown were all on target for Ensign. Manager Aaron Bloxham congratulated his players and told Yellow Sport: "We are back where we belong."

Solid second for Havering squads

Athletics

HAVING Athletic Club's Under 17 and Under 20 squads opened their season with a good second place finish behind Chelmsford at Ashford on Saturday.

On another wind-affected day, the sprinters had the bonus of a tailwind but the track runners had to battle hard against the breeze.

The Under 20 Men had a great day with wins in nine individual events and the sprint relay. Lewis Bailey stepped up effortlessly to the U20 ranks with a sprint double, running faster than ever in the 200m, while new find Timi Kuye excelled on his first competitive outing in club colours with a fine 200m B victory, after being edged into second in the 100m.

Tom Pitkin and Alex Law both contributed a pair of wins with Tom smashing his 400m PB to win after setting new marks in his U20 400m hurdles debut, while Alex took the high jump honours after winning his long jump speciality, also adding second in the shot (PB) and third in the javelin.

Michael Duncan added a throw double with wins in the discus and B string shot, as well as runners-up spots in the B 400m and 800m. Timi, Lewis and Alex were joined by Sam Omo-Olofin in the victorious sprint relay quartet while Tom's impressive anchor brought the 4x400m squad into second after sterling work from the middle distance trio of Brad West, Matt Braybrook and Abdul Mohamed. Ed Brinton-Quinn scored well in the throws with second in the B discus in a new PB and third places in hammer and shot.

The Under 20 women also scored well with seven individual wins and a relay success. Georgie Taylor won both discus and shot and was third in the hammer in a new PB, while Heidi Surman-Wells looked strong in winning the 800m in a new PB against faster opposition, after improving her 400m best in third. Tayla Humm also set new personal marks in her 200m victory and was third in the 100m, while Michelle Hughes won the 400m hurdles before claiming the high jump runners-up spot and setting a new javelin PB for second.

The throws B string full points were earned by Rachel Forder (discus) and Alice Martin (javelin). Heidi, Michelle, Alice and Tayla had already won the sprint relay but all the opposing teams were disqualified for faulty changes.

Bella Woods was second in the steeplechase, as was Sarah Wilson in both 1500m A and 800m B, while Lucy Bailey was third in both sprint hurdles and 100m B. Louise Lear was second in the triple jump B and covered gaps in the 200m and 400m well with third places in both. Beth James completed the line-up with third in the triple jump in a new PB.

But there was disappointment for vaulter Mercy Gutteridge who was taken to hospital after landing awkwardly when attempting her opening height and went home on crutches due to a sprained ankle.

The short-handed Under 17s were affected by the clash with Sunday's EYAL meeting but worked hard to score vital points.

First round winners Chelmsford stage the next fixture on May 16 and look on course to regain their Premier Division place.

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

"Wonderful job from start to finish. No hassle from Joel when he first visited and brilliant installation, team working in hot conditions. Thank you so much, so happy with the job!"

Mrs Phillips

"Great job and a pleasant experience. Having had bad experiences with home improvement companies in the past it was a relief to deal with Dolphin. No pressure, no messing around, kept us informed at every stage and did a lovely job, our house looks so much better now"
